Portsmouth Computer Group Sings a New Tune

Temple and Portsmouth, NH - Granite State Opera is delighted to announce that PCG (Portsmouth Computer Group) has agreed to become its Official IT Services Sponsor. "PCG will be providing IT networking and infrastructure support services to Granite State Opera," said Executive Director John MacLeod. "We are so happy to have them supporting our IT network. With offices in Portsmouth and Temple, NH, and performing for the first time at two venues, including The Music Hall on May 4th, we really needed someone to count on for maximum up time, and that's what PCG has been delivering now for many years. They continue to be a generous provider to area non-profits, and that really says something!"

PCG delivers IT services to small and mid-size businesses, non-profit organizations and government agencies. Known for its friendly, reliable, expert service since 1996, PCG sells installs and services computers, networks and solutions providing a full complement of certified technicians, and customer.

Says David Hodgdon, PCG founder and president, "We are proud to be the Official IT Services Sponsor for Granite State Opera and look forward to helping the GSO's technology systems 'performance!'"
